It's time once again for The Panhandle Gives, Amarillo's annual celebration of generosity! Hosted by the Amarillo Area Foundation, this nine-day charitable giving event brings together communities across all 26 counties of the Texas Panhandle to support the causes that make our region stronger. We're incredibly grateful to participate again this year! The campaign will take place Monday, November 23 – Tuesday, December 1. During this time, your gift goes even further thanks to the amplification fund!

Last year, our community showed tremendous support for Panhandle PBS, helping us take steps toward joining Texas PBS to launch a new, more localized PBS streaming app. That work is still underway, and we look forward to sharing more updates on the app's progress soon!

This year, we have a new goal with a simple mission: help us fund 150 days of Panhandle PBS programming. Each day of programming costs approximately $1,000, and we're asking our community to help us raise $150,000 to keep the programs you know and love on the air.

Panhandle PBS is here for the long haul, bringing trusted storytelling, educational resources, and distinctive programming to the Texas Panhandle. The Panhandle Gives is an opportunity for our community to invest in that mission and help sustain the programming that brings us together. Every gift makes a difference, and together, we can keep Panhandle PBS going strong, one day at a time.

Starting November 23 through December 1, you can donate in a couple of different ways.

1. Donate directly through the website portal at https://www.thepanhandlegives.org/organization/panhandlepbs

2. Donate by taking cash or a check to any of these supporting banks – Amarillo National Bank, FirstBank Southwest, or Happy State Bank.

If you have any questions, contact us at (806) 371-5479.

Gilvin Group

L.P. and Wanda Gilvin were founding members of Panhandle PBS and its studios. The Gilvin Group has been formed to continue the Gilvin's vision of generously supporting the arts, local businesses and philanthropy in the Texas Panhandle through mass media. Thank You for Savoring the Goods with Us!

Thank you to everyone who joined us for Savor the Goods: Fire & Flavor with Steven Raichlen! Your support made this special evening a memorable celebration of great food, good company, and the stories that bring us together.

We are grateful to our guests, sponsors, and partners for making this event possible and for supporting the work of Panhandle PBS. As our largest annual fundraiser, Savor the Goods helps us continue bringing trusted programming, educational resources, and meaningful experiences to the Texas Panhandle.

Your generosity keeps our mission moving forward, and we couldn't do it without you. Thank you for being part of the Panhandle PBS family and for helping keep your community's public television station strong!

We look forward to gathering around the table with you again next year!

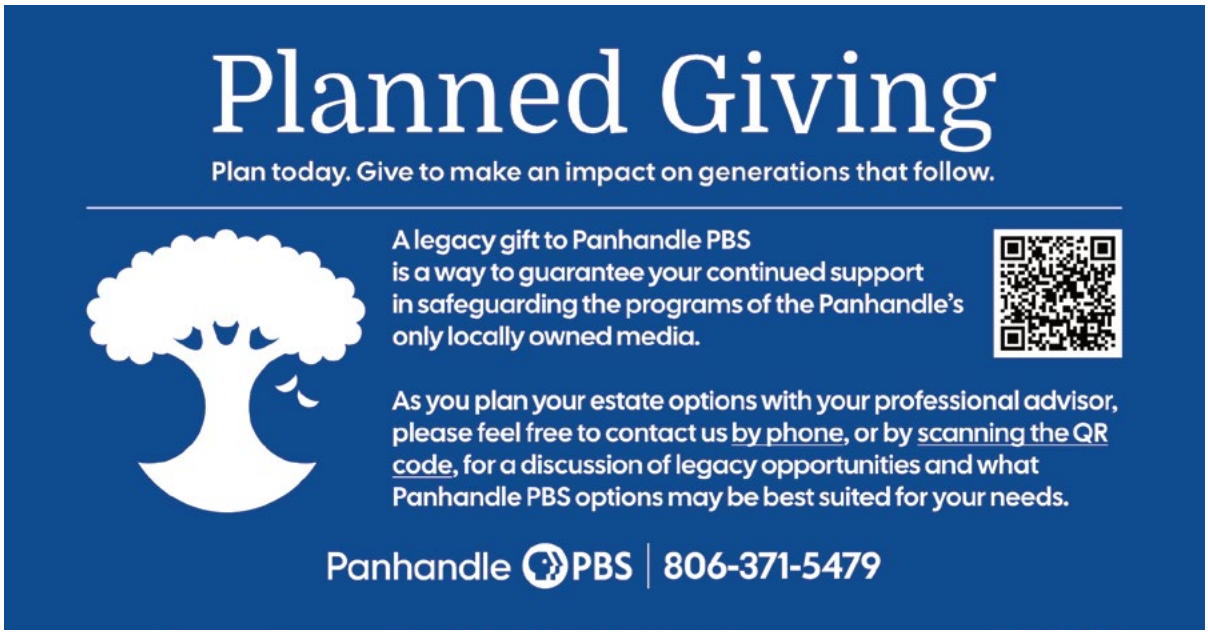

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT IN AMERICA, a new four-part, eight-hour documentary series, explores the consequential story of criminal justice in America as it has never before been told — from the colonial era to today — this documentary series will air over four consecutive nights on Panhandle PBS.

At once expansive and intimate, CRIME AND PUNISHMENT IN AMERICA offers a sweeping look at the American criminal justice system, from the origins of prisons and policing to our continued fascination with crime, and traces the contours of our imperfect system and how it influences nearly all parts of our society: the media, economics and politics. Through the voices and testimony of those who have committed crimes, experienced incarceration, enforced the law, or lost loved ones to violence, the series explores the cost of America's choices and the enduring tension between crime and punishment, vengeance and mercy, justice and redemption.

The series, directed by Lynn Novick (THE VIETNAM WAR, HEMINGWAY, COLLEGE BEHIND BARS, THE U.S. AND THE HOLOCAUST), executive produced by Ken Burns and Sam Pollard, narrated by Keith David, produced by Lucas Frank, Vanessa González-Block, Lynn Novick, and Prisca Pointdujour, is the first documentary project to comprehensively explore the arguments Americans have had over the problem of crime, the purpose of punishment, and the meaning of justice for more than 250 years.

Watch on Panhandle PBS November 16, 17, 18 and 19 at 7 p.m.

Station Supporters

Panhandle PBS is a destination for viewers in this part of Texas to explore the local area and the world. Trusted PBS programs and local productions entertain, educate and inform. Panhandle PBS is honored to have a dedicated group of donors who provide support for programming and events. These businesses and foundations currently provide the vital funding necessary to keep quality programs you trust on the air. When you encounter these businesses and foundations, please thank them for their support of Panhandle PBS.

In the Alps, December transforms the mountains and valleys into a winter wonderland. Spruce and fir forests glisten with sparkling frost as goldcrests dart across in search of their feast. Marmots retreat to cozy underground homes, chamois race across the highest peaks, while deer and wolves trot through deep snow. Catch a glimpse into the Alps' most enchanting time of year.

Get into the holiday spirit and watch NATURE: CHRISTMAS IN THE ALPS November 25 at 7 p.m. on Panhandle PBS.

MISS SCARLET is coming to an end with its 7th and final season.

In MISS SCARLET Season 7, Eliza Scarlet has found love, but with it comes a new set of challenges, both on a professional and personal level. As she faces mounting pressures both at work and at home, she is reunited with familiar friendly faces, as well as a powerful new crime boss who has arrived in town - and it's not who you might expect. Meanwhile, Blake's promotion brings its own complications, as he finds himself answering to a surprising new boss with whom he shares a complicated history. Season 7 raises the stakes, deepens the drama, and brings Eliza and Blake's journey to a thrilling and satisfying close.

The final season of MISS SCARLET will air in January 2027, BUT as a Panhandle PBS member, you can watch all six episodes early starting November 19 on PBS Passport!

From the General Manager

Dear Friends and Supporters of Panhandle PBS,

I want to begin with a sincere thank you to everyone who joined us last month for our Savor the Goods event with Steven Raichlen.

It was a fun evening, and one of the best parts for me was getting the chance to meet and talk with so many of you. Events like this are important fundraisers for Panhandle PBS, but they also give us a chance to do something television cannot always do on its own: get people out from behind their screens and into the same room together. Turning that connection with Panhandle PBS into a shared experience in the Texas Panhandle is exactly the kind of engagement I hope Panhandle PBS can continue creating across our region.

I also want to acknowledge something that was much less enjoyable for many of you.

For those who watch Panhandle PBS over the air or on satellite, I want to apologize for our extended time off the air while we completed needed repairs and long-term improvements at our transmission site.

We knew going into this major project that the work would require us to be off the air for more than a week, and weather and other complications extended that timeline further than we had hoped. We heard from many of you during that time through phone calls and emails, and we understand how frustrating the prolonged outage was.

The work was also a significant investment for Panhandle PBS, but it was one we believed was imperative. Our transmission system is the foundation of our over-the-air service across the region, and these improvements were about more than fixing an immediate problem. They were about making sure we are positioned to provide strong, reliable service to the Texas Panhandle for many years to come.

I appreciate your patience while the work was completed, and I appreciate how many of you took the time to let us know how much you missed having Panhandle PBS available. As frustrating as the outage was, those calls and emails were also an important reminder of how much this service matters to people across our region.

Thank you for watching, supporting, and continuing to be part of Panhandle PBS.

Matt Franklin
General Manger, Panhandle PBS

From the CEO

Dear Panhandle PBS Member,

It's that time of the year! Once again, Panhandle PBS is proud to participate in The Panhandle Gives, a nine-day annual charitable giving campaign hosted by the Amarillo Area Foundation that supports nonprofits across all 26 counties of the Texas Panhandle. 2026 dates are Nov. 23rd. through Giving Tuesday, Dec. 1st.

This year, our goal at Panhandle PBS is $150,000 - enough to provide 150 days of essential support, at $1,000 a day, to keep Panhandle PBS, PBS KIDS, and Create TV on the air and serving our communities. For generations, Panhandle PBS has been here to educate, inspire, entertain, and connect people across the Panhandle. Your support makes that possible! During The Panhandle Gives, we hope you'll join us in keeping these trusted resources available to everyone, one day at a time!

Please help us reach our $150,000 goal. Every gift makes a difference after our federal defunding last year. Together, we can keep a robust Panhandle PBS on the air as a vital source of quality local and national programming for our community.

With gratitude,

Kevin Ball, CEO, Panhandle PBS
Vice President of Communications and Marketing, Amarillo College
