JOANNA KAIL NAMED NEW CEO

Joanna Kail has been selected as the new General Manager/Chief Executive Officer for Wyoming PBS. Mrs. Kail assumes the position September 1, 2023, following the retirement of Terry Dugas.

"It's hard to think of anything more fulfilling than working with an award-winning team of filmmakers on the stories of the greatest state in the union," said Mrs. Kail. "Get ready, because Wyoming PBS has only scratched the surface of the stories that are still waiting to be told! It's truly an honor to continue to be a part of Wyoming's only statewide public television network."

Joanna Kail was raised in Lander, WY. She earned a degree in Communications & Marketing from the University of Wyoming. Joanna has been the Executive Director of the Wyoming PBS Foundation for six years, and is a member of Public Media Women in Leadership. She is the Executive Producer for the Wyoming PBS Emmy award-winning series, "A State of Mind: Confronting Wyoming's Mental Health Crisis."
