HIGHLIGHTS

Tribal Waters

Mon. Aug. 3 | 9pm

The eastern slope of Wyoming's Wind River Range has been the ancestral home of the Shoshone people for more than 10,000 years. The Wind River, which runs through their territory, is deeply significant to them and the Northern Arapaho, with whom they now share the land. The water is vital to their customs, history, and lifestyle.

Legacy for a Nation: Journeys to Carbon County, Wyoming

Thu. Aug. 6 | 9pm

Fri. Aug. 28 | 9:30pm

Carbon County's rugged landscape has long shaped movement, opportunity and adventure. See how a natural pass through the Rocky Mountains drew trappers, miners, sheepherders, ranchers, and families who stayed.

Killing the Shepherd

Tue. Aug. 18 | 3pm

Follow a remote African community led by a female chief fighting to restore wildlife and break the grip of poverty. As poaching, hunger, disease, and corruption close in, the chief and a safari operator attempt to rebuild stability, but powerful forces threaten to destroy everything they're trying to protect.

Farm to Fork Wyoming: Beef To Butcher

Thu. Aug. 20 | 3pm

The demand for local meat processing facilities is on the rise, just as the last of our master butchers and artisan sausage makers seem to be disappearing. Explore Wyoming's role in the modern-day beef industry and how the changing world around us might offer new opportunities.

Art of Home: A Wind River Story

Fri. Aug. 28 | 10pm

Two Indigenous artists create new works reflecting on their tribal homelands, the Wind River Indian Reservation. Ken Williams (Arapaho) is a Santa Fe, New Mexico, art celebrity, and Sarah Ortegon (Shoshone) is an up-and-coming actress in Denver. Both artists travel to the Wind River Reservation to reconnect with their ancestors and present their artwork to a somewhat isolated community.

Mountain Roots: The Adventure Home

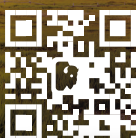

Thu. Aug. 27 | 10:30pm

Sun. Aug. 30 | 10pm

Bennett, a 9-year-old climber, travels from Wyoming to the Italian Alps with her grandfather to scale a mountain, embarking on a journey to reconnect their family after more than a century apart. Accompanied by her climbing partner, Grandpa Gary, Bennett tackles some of the world's most striking peaks in the Dolomites, revealing her growth as both a climber and a person.
