HIGHLIGHTS

Wyoming Chronicle: Vietnam's Traveling Wall

Fri. Nov. 6 | 7:30pm

The Vietnam Memorial Moving Wall brings the experience of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington to millions of Americans who can't travel to the capital. This half-scale replica came to Newcastle this year, thanks to a determined community builder, a dedicated driver and assembler, and a helping hand from the local football team.

Home from the Vietnam War

Wed. Nov. 11 | 7pm

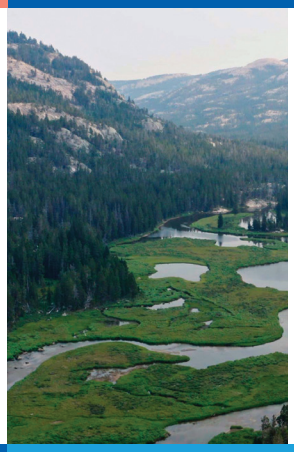

A Vietnam War hero, U.S. Army Lt. Lee Alley, wears an extraordinary badge of honor. He is one of the most decorated veterans in the state. This documentary features Alley's remarkable story, from his upbringing in Wyoming and service in a controversial war to the treatment he encountered after returning home and his struggles with post-traumatic stress disorder.

She Wrote "My Friend Flicka"

Fri. Nov. 13 | 10:30pm

Mary O'Hara wrote "My Friend Flicka" and garnered international acclaim for her books about the people and horses that lived on a Wyoming ranch. She was an accomplished musician who composed all the music heard in the program. But O'Hara was first, and always, a writer.

Tribal Waters

Tue. Nov. 17 | 9pm

The eastern slope of Wyoming's Wind River Range has been the ancestral home of the Shoshone people for more than 10,000 years. The Wind River, which runs through their territory, is deeply significant to them and the Northern Arapaho, with whom they now share the land. The water is vital to their customs, history and lifestyle.

The Bozeman Trail

Sun. Nov. 22 | 3pm

The Bozeman Trail was an offshoot of the Oregon Trail, a shortcut to the newly discovered gold fields of Montana Territory. Pioneered by John Bozeman and others beginning in 1863, the Bozeman Trail cut through the heart of Indian country. It became a flash point for a clash of cultures that would explode into warfare, destruction and tragedy. It was a singular road that changed this part of the American West forever.

A Life Outside: American Mountain Guides

Sun. Nov. 22 & 29 | 10pm

Explore the high-stakes world of American mountain guiding, tracing its roots to Paul Petzoldt, the legendary mountaineer who co-founded the National Outdoor Leadership School and North America's oldest guide service, Exum. The film follows elite guides in the rugged Tetons and Alps who face deadly risks every day, not for personal glory but to get their clients back safely.
