HIGHLIGHTS

Made in the West

Fri. Sept. 4 | 8pm

Mon. Sept. 7 | 8pm

Focusing on functional art – interviews with artisans, historians, collectors, ranch owners, university faculty members, and students explore the impact of Native Americans, Buffalo Bill, Thomas Molesworth, and popular entertainment in the romanticism of the West and what is considered western style.

Painting the Falls of Yellowstone

Fri. Sept. 4 | 9pm

A look at some of the most stunning, varied, and unique waterfalls in Yellowstone National Park, with insight into internationally renowned artist M.C. Poulsen's vision and creative process for capturing their beauty.

Cowboy Song: On Stage from Cody

Fri. Sept. 4 | 10pm

From lonely prairies to packed auditoriums, cowboy music has always told the story of the West. Join us in this classic program from Cody, Wyoming, where artists like The Sons of the San Joaquin, Willie and the Wild West, and Juni Fisher keep this timeless tradition alive at the Buffalo Bill Historic Center. It's more than a concert—it's a celebration of history, heart, and the cowboy spirit.

Wyoming Chronicle

Season Premiere

Fri. Sept. 11 | 7:30pm

Kick off the new season of our weekly show as host Steve Peck previews what's ahead. Highlights include award-winning America 250 poster, the history of the Ames Monument "Pyramid of the Plains," updated stories at the Fort Phil Kearny historic site 160 years after its pivotal battle, and a long-sought preservation victory in Grand Teton National Park.

Cookin' with Cowboys

Mon. Sept. 14 | 8pm

Saddle up with chef Vinny Fiore for a journey through the heart of the American West on this a new Wyoming-focused travel and cooking series. Combining authentic regional recipes with firsthand encounters at national parks, ranches, and small businesses, the program offers audiences an entertaining food journey and a cultural education.

Before Wyoming:

The West in 1776

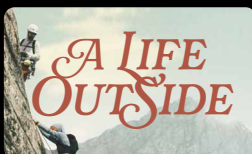

Tue. Sept. 15 | 9pm

Sun. Sept. 27 | 10pm

This film expands the story of 1776 beyond the East, revealing the overlooked history of the Northern Rockies and Great Plains. It explores thriving Indigenous nations, early European influence, and the changing world of the West through historians, Native voices, artifacts, and the perspectives of young people today.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT

During WyoGives we met our $100K fundraising goal and raised $101,548 from 289 donors. Plus our First Annual WyoGives Premiere of A Life Outside: American Mountain Guides was a success.
