I like all of the Presidents.

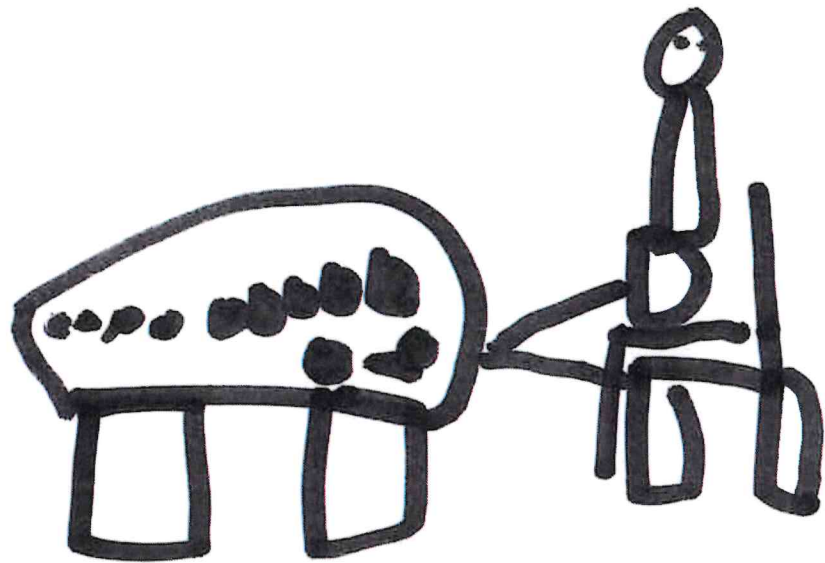

The best thing about the Presidents is the first President George Washington.

He lived a long time ago. He rode his horse on Saturdays.

All the other days he worked in his office at the White House.

He made the Constitution by himself. It was on small paper. He used a special pen that had octopus ink.

Lots of people copied his Constitution. They all used octopus ink. That was a long time ago.
