This Old House

Essex County Colonial | Garden State of Mind

October 3 at 10:30am

Episode: 4801H - Duration: 30 minutes - Rating: TVG

Kevin O'Connor kicks off Season 48 in New Jersey, meeting homeowners Ethan and Harley at their 1893 Dutch Colonial and touring the home's original details. Richard Trethewey walks Zack Dettmore through the vintage heating system. Jenn Nawada tours the yard, sorting wants from needs, while Kevin and Zack examine the kitchen's messy renovation history before a dumpster arrives to kick off demo.

Nature

Sesame Street and the Great Elephant Adventure

October 18 at 09:30am

Episode: 4501 - Duration: 60 minutes - Rating: TVG

Join Elmo and the Sesame Street gang on a once-in-a-lifetime African safari adventure. After adopting an orphaned elephant online, Elmo, Abby and Nina travel to a Kenyan sanctuary to meet the young elephant alongside other iconic wildlife.

Chef's Life

Blueberries and Boiling Over

October 24 at 12:30pm

Episode: 201H - Duration: 30 minutes - Rating: TVG

After a year recovering from a restaurant fire and re-opening Chef and the Farmer, Vivian and Ben go all-in to open a burger/oyster bar called The Boiler Room. Vivian boils over with the stress of staffing adjustments, testing new menu concepts, and the enormous task of putting 500 pounds of blueberries to good use.

Motorweek

October 31 at 12:00pm

Episode: 4608H - Duration: 30 minutes - Rating: TVG

Wagons aren't nearly as common as they once were, but people still love them, especially when they've got a performance side to them. That's where the Mercedes-AMG E53 Wagon, our first Road Test, comes in. Then we'll plot a course in the Subaru Uncharted, the brand's smallest all-electric utility. We'll also have more Your Drive car care advice and an all-new Quick Spin.

Human Footprint Strangers In Paradise

October 1 at 04:00pm
Episode: 101H - Duration: 60 minutes - Rating: TVPG
Invasive species are reshaping the world's ecosystems, but who's really to blame? Shane wrestles a python, hunts Hawaiian pigs, and gets sucker-punched by a carp to answer the question: in the Age of Humans, how does our species decide what belongs?

Rick Steves' Europe Rick Steves' Europe: Ancient Roman Art

October 2 at 05:00pm
Episode: 1203H - Duration: 30 minutes - Rating: TVPG
Follow Rome's rise through its awe-inspiring art, starting at Rome's humble birthplace in the Forum. Soon Rome is graced with supersized monuments like the majestic domed Pantheon and the Colosseum, where gladiators battled to the death. We also get a glimpse of Rome's more intimate side: the colorful mosaics, luxurious frescoes, and realistic portraits of the solid citizens who made Rome great.

Horizons from PBS News

October 3 at 06:00pm
We are all being watched in ways we never imagined, including vehicle tracking, facial recognition technology and data mining. What does all this digital surveillance mean for the right to privacy? And as a backlash over this monitoring grows, what can you do to protect yourself? Horizons moderator William Brangham explores the ethics of surveillance Byron Tau and Calli Schroeder.

Seeds

October 26 at 10:00pm

Episode: 2803H - Duration: 120 minutes - Rating: TVPG

Seeds is a visual exploration of centennial farmers in the Southern U.S. This film examines the decline of generational Black farmers and the significance of owning land. Through the perspectives of three different lives, the film creates an intimate portrait of farmers and the landscapes they steward, illustrating how generations of Black family farms persevere despite enduring obstacles.

Power Trip

October 19 at 10:00pm

Episode: 0 - Duration: 60 minutes - Rating: TVPG

This documentary examines the rise in U.S. traffic deaths and the media culture around dangerous driving. Bucking the trend of declining fatalities in other wealthy countries, U.S. crash deaths spiked to more than 40,000 in recent years. Speed is a major factor, yet popular media—including many car commercials—celebrate the kind of high-risk driving that kills people and tears families apart.

Is There Anybody Out There?

October 23 at 10:30pm

Episode: 3703 - Duration: 90 minutes - Rating: TV14

Born with a rare disability, filmmaker Ella Glendinning wonders if there is anyone who can share the experience of living in a body like hers. This simple question—one which non disabled people take for granted, leads to a journey to not only others who live like her—but to the realization that meeting them changes how she views herself in the world, as well as many surprises along the way.

Seeds

October 28 at 10:00pm

Episode: 2803 - Duration: 120 minutes - Rating: TVPG

Seeds is a visual exploration of centennial farmers in the Southern U.S. This film examines the decline of generational Black farmers and the significance of owning land. Through the perspectives of three different lives, the film creates an intimate portrait of farmers and the landscapes they steward, illustrating how generations of Black family farms persevere despite enduring obstacles.

Never Drop The Ball

October 29 at 10:00pm

Episode: 0 - Duration: 60 minutes - Rating: TVPG

Explore the journey of Black baseball players during decades of exclusion from Major League Baseball, culminating in Jackie Robinson's 1947 success. Their passion for the game led to the creation of the Negro Major League and Negro American League. Set in an era when Major League Baseball began but was segregated, these players' love for the game transcended Jim Crow laws and adversity.
