We invite you to become a sponsor for our annual Be My Neighbor Day event, a heartwarming celebration of community and kindness. This free event brings families together for a day of meaningful activities and unforgettable educational experiences, including performances from Daniel Tiger.

Why Sponsor?

Reach and Impact: By sponsoring Be My Neighbor Day, your brand will be showcased to a diverse and engaged audience of families and community members. Over 9,000 individuals attended the event in 2025. This is an excellent opportunity to demonstrate your commitment to community values and social responsibility.

Community Engagement: Align your brand with a beloved event that promotes kindness, empathy and community spirit. Your sponsorship will enhance the event experience for attendees.

Brand Visibility: Enjoy prominent exposure through event signage, promotional materials and more. Your support will be acknowledged in event-related communications, ensuring maximum visibility.

Event Participation Requirements:

- Sponsors should be prepared to conduct a community-focused act of kindness activity engaging families in conversations about being a good neighbor.
- Sponsors are required to bring tents. A limited number of tents will be available for rent on a first come, first served basis.
- Must provide Clark County Business License and Certificate of Insurance (COI) shortly after registration.
