MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Celebrating America

Every summer, I look forward to A Capitol Fourth. I love fireworks, the music and the pure enjoyment of seeing people from all walks of life come together to celebrate our country. It's a reminder not just of our independence, but of the ideals that continue to shape us: freedom, community and the belief that we are stronger when we act together.

“Public media brings these stories to life in ways no other platform can – through trusted storytelling, educational programming and a deep commitment to reflecting the diversity of our shared experience.”

This year's celebration marks America's 249th birthday, broadcast live from the West Lawn of the U.S. Capitol. Performances will cross genres from pop to Broadway, with the National Symphony Orchestra providing the soundtrack to a truly American experience. And this fall, PBS will debut The American Revolution, a powerful new series from Ken Burns and his team that explores the complexities and courage at the heart of our nation's founding.

Public media brings these stories to life in ways no other platform can — through trusted storytelling, educational programming and a deep commitment to reflecting the diversity of our shared experience.

But this work doesn't happen on its own. As discussions continue in Washington about future funding for public broadcasting, I've been reminded of how much we rely on the people who watch, support, and believe in what we do. Here at Vegas PBS, we're fortunate to serve a community that cares deeply — whether it's showing up for a PBS KIDS event, enrolling in our workforce training programs or simply tuning in to learn something new.

If you'd like to help us continue this mission, I invite you to visit vegaspbs.org/protect. Every show, every service and every story is made possible by you.

With appreciation,
Mare Mazur

American Experience: Fatal Flood

Sunday, July 27 at 1 p.m.

In the spring of 1927, after weeks of incessant rains, the Mississippi River went on a rampage from Cairo, Illinois, to New Orleans, inundating hundreds of towns, killing as many as a thousand people and leaving a million homeless. In Greenville, Mississippi, efforts to contain the river pitted the majority black population against an aristocratic plantation family, the Percys, and the Percys against themselves. A dramatic story of greed, power and race during one of America's greatest natural disasters.

Summertime

July 7

Sunny days and balmy nights...moments when anything was possible. Khalilah goes to camp for the first time and learns more than just campfire songs; when a vacation takes a dangerous turn, Martha is surprised by her mom's courageous act; and as a kid, Ajay discovers baseball and its magical connection to the divine.

Into the Wild

Into the Wild

July 14

When we venture beyond the familiar, we can transform the unexplored into a canvas of discovery. Avesha's love of the outdoors is instilled by her father; Antonio turns a chaotic whale-watching trip into a memorable family adventure; and Jenny chronicles her run across America and the community who made it possible.

Summertime

Road Trip

July 21

On the highway where anything can happen, take a ride on a journey that changed everything. Melissa tells us about the night she opened for Bob Dylan; Suzanne drives home with a feisty ram; and Akshobh discovers hospitality and humanity in the wilderness.

You Only Live Once

July 28

A life well lived is a life worth living...because it only happens once. Gianmarco goes on a skydiving trip and realizes that sometimes in love we jump too late; Brendyn's dream of a first kiss finally comes true; and Alison and her family celebrate life & death in wonderful and unique ways.
