 THE SMITH CENTER®

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Renewal and Return

By Mare Mazur, President and General Manager, Vegas PBS

Spring is often described as a season of renewal. But renewal does not always require reinvention. Sometimes it calls for clarity about what matters and discipline about what comes next.

That balance is reflected in this month's programming at Vegas PBS. A new MASTERPIECE drama, The Forsytes, premieres March 22, exploring wealth, ambition, and the quiet power of expectation. Though set in Victorian London, the story feels current. Its characters wrestle with choices that shape not only their futures, but their identities. The question at its center is a familiar one: When do we follow convention, and when do we choose something more?

This month also marks the return of Downton Abbey on MASTERPIECE through Passport. Its reappearance is not about nostalgia. It is a reminder that strong storytelling endures because it continues to speak to audiences over time. Members can revisit the series, or experience it for the first time, all streaming at your convenience.

Vegas PBS has always balanced continuity with change. We invest in new work while preserving the programs that built trust with our audiences. In a media landscape shaped by volume and velocity, that steadiness is intentional.

“In a crowded media environment, that clarity of purpose matters.”

Your support gives Vegas PBS the discipline to make intentional choices about what comes next. It allows us to invest in work that is thoughtful rather than reactive, enduring rather than disposable. In a crowded media environment, that clarity of purpose matters. Thank you for sustaining a public media organization that chooses carefully, serves broadly and remains focused on long-term value for our community.

With appreciation,
Mare

THANK YOU!

Save the Drama...

Enjoy Theater on Screen and in Person

by Autumn Widdoes

Vegas PBS offers high quality drama throughout the year, including The Forsytes, premiering on Sunday, March 22, and Downton Abbey, returning as a Passport exclusive this March. Great Performances lets you keep up with theater staged in New York City or London from the comfort of your home. While there is so much excellent drama available on the screen, whether filmed as a live performance or made for the screen, you may also hunger for in-person experiences.

Las Vegas is renowned for being the entertainment capital of the world. There are high-quality shows with top-notch performers available every night of the week. Many of these shows are produced by local theater companies who work with professionally trained actors. While it's always fun to watch a show on The Strip, it's great to support local.

Here are a few options for those of you seeking to expand your repertoire beyond the broadcast:

THE SMITH CENTER

The Smith Center offers the Toyota Broadway Las Vegas® series, bringing in popular Broadway musicals on tour. Along with Broadway musicals, The Smith Center also offers children's performances such as "Peppa Pig: My First Concert," as well as dance and live music at its venues.

thesmithcenter.com

A PUBLIC FIT

Not a fan of musicals? Don't worry. There are plenty of other options for those of you who love drama. Check out A Public Fit's season of plays. This theater company programs plays written by some of American and British theater's most sophisticated playwrights and also showcases new, local playwrights and a storytelling series.

THE LEGACY THEATRE OF EXCELLENCE

Just down the street from Vegas PBS is the Legacy Theatre of Excellence, the new home of Broadway in the HOOD, a company that's focused on telling diverse stories, making theater more diversely represented and bringing the joy of drama to all.

NEVADA SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL

If you're into the Shakespeare in the Park performances you see on Great Performances, you need to attend Nevada Shakespeare Festival's offerings. They stage Shakespeare's plays with a modern approach while also respecting the lyrical tradition of the Bard.

MAJESTIC REPERTORY THEATRE

Want something a bit edgier? Located in the Arts District, Majestic Repertory Theatre is known for original parody musicals based on cult classic films from the 1990s. Additionally, they produce immersive theater experiences where audiences can feel as though they are part of the production.

VEGAS THEATRE COMPANY

Another theater company in the Arts District is Vegas Theatre Company, which continues to expand its programming with the intention of becoming a regional theater. Their offerings include cabaret, solo shows, fringe festival performances and local world premieres.

If that isn't enough, you'll soon be able to join Vegas PBS for in-person screenings of some of your favorite dramas, cozy mysteries and procedurals! We're preparing to launch a season of screenings at The Library District. Keep your eyes peeled on our social media profiles and in the SOURCE Magazine for more information on how to attend!

Until then, don't miss the upcoming dramas on Page 7 and let us know which ones you love! 🎭

Nolly Marathon

Sunday, March 22,
beginning at 12:30 p.m.

Helena Bonham Carter stars as soap opera legend Noele "Nolly" Gordon, one of the most famous faces on British TV in the 1960s and '70s, whose unceremonious firing from her hit show at the height of her career was front-page news. A bold exploration of how the establishment turns on women who refuse to play by the rules, Nolly is an outrageously fun and wildly entertaining ride through Gordon's most tumultuous years, and a sharp, affectionate and heart-breaking portrait of a forgotten icon.
