Lilly's little friend Timmy

By Aganya Maloja
Once upon a time, there lived a spider named Timmy who lived under a tree. A little girl named Lilly always enjoyed watching Timmy crawling over his web.
Lilly got a small plant for Timmy and helped him crawl over one corner of the pot.
Timmy made a web quickly and started living there happily ever. Lilly saved the day and Timmy stopped all bugs from going to Lilly's house.
The moral of the story is that you should be kind to others.

The End.
