

Ship Wrecked Zoo

By
Elsie Mai

I dedicate my book,

SHIP WRECKED ZOO

to my Mom and Dad

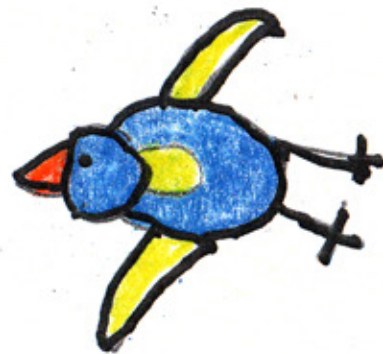

Love,

Elsie

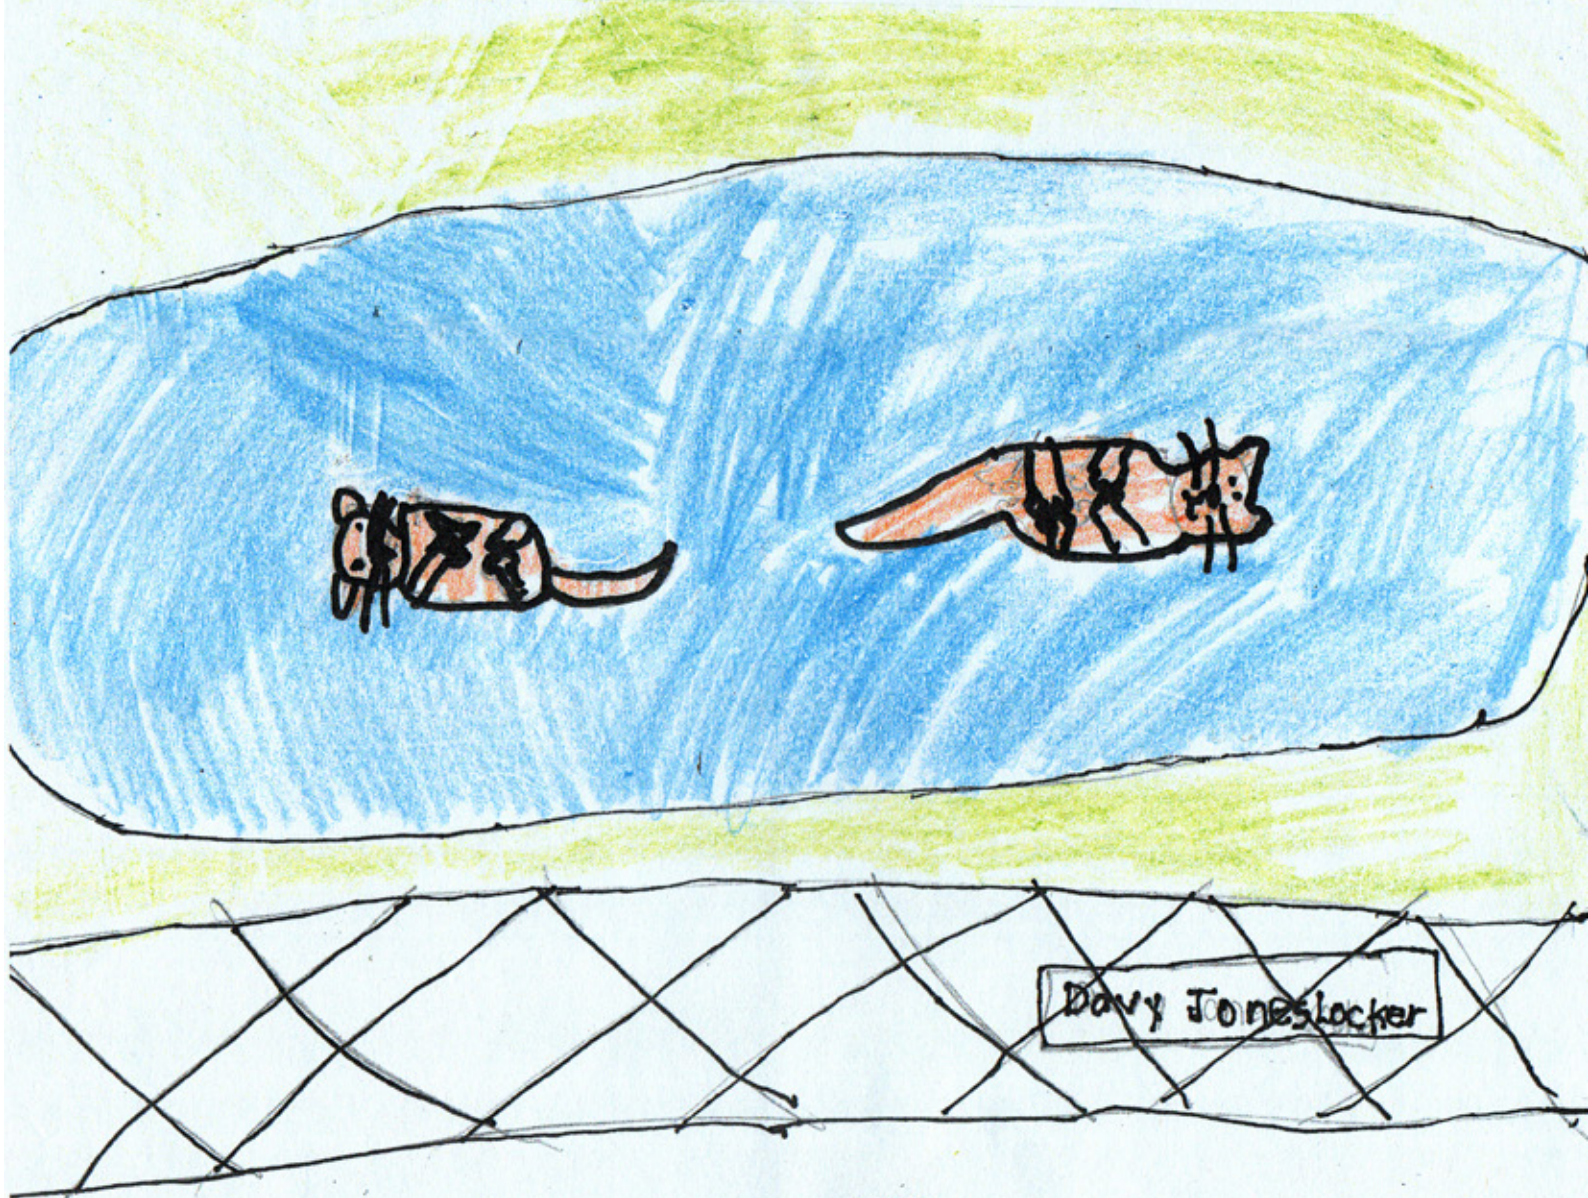

Elsie loved adventure, she dreamed about becoming a pirate! In her dreams she wanted to create a zoo— The Ship Wrecked Zoo! Her zoo would have many creative exhibits.

The visitors would visit the Ship Ahoy, where they would be surrounded by all types of parrots. Lots of colors everywhere!

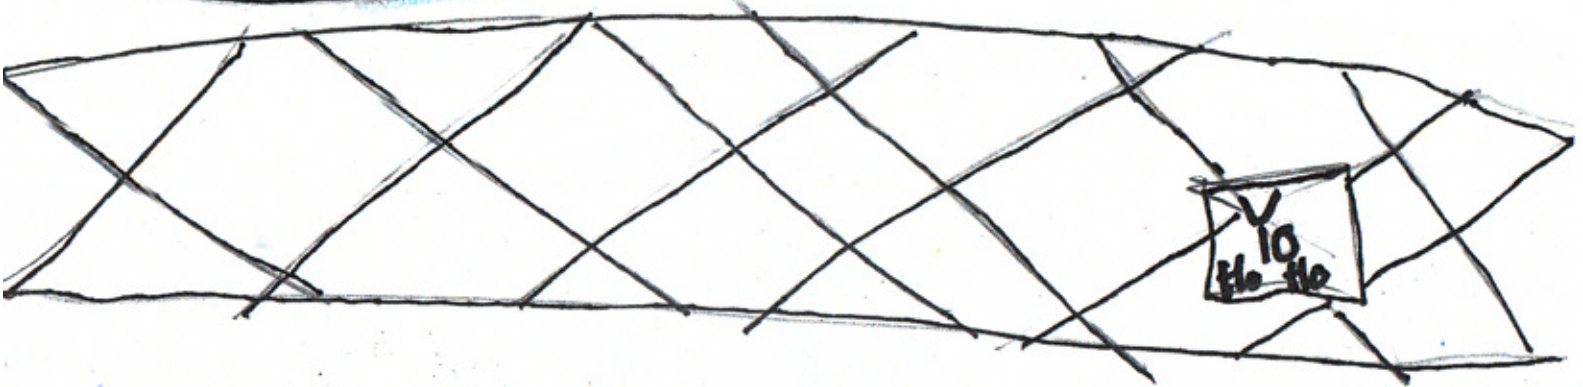

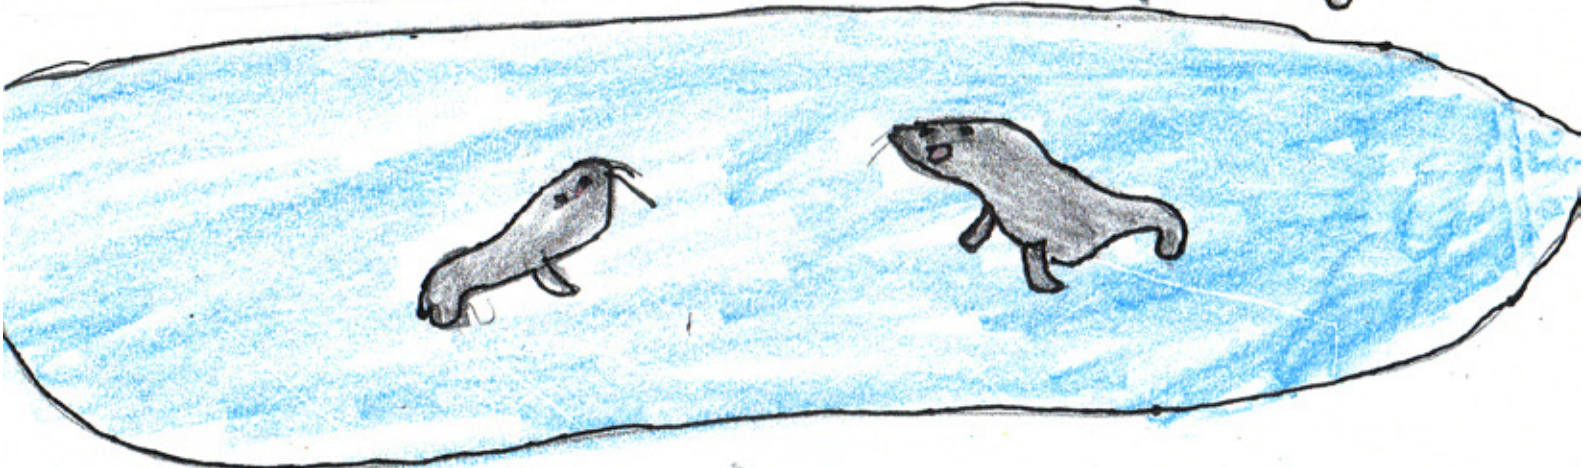

In the Davy Jones Locker Section, you will see the otters playing and splashing in the water. Be careful don't get wet!

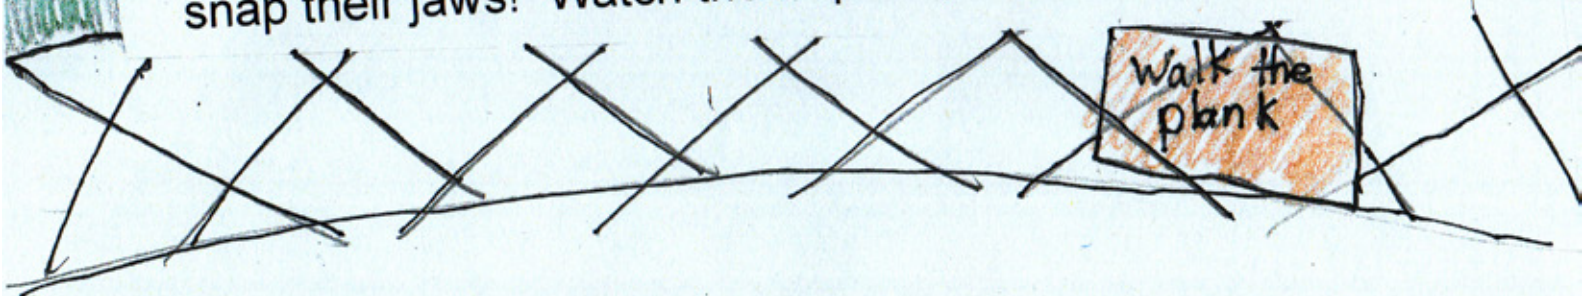

Energetic monkeys swing from vine to vine in the Yo Ho Ho!, part of the zoo!
The stream that runs below is full of splashing Sea Lions!

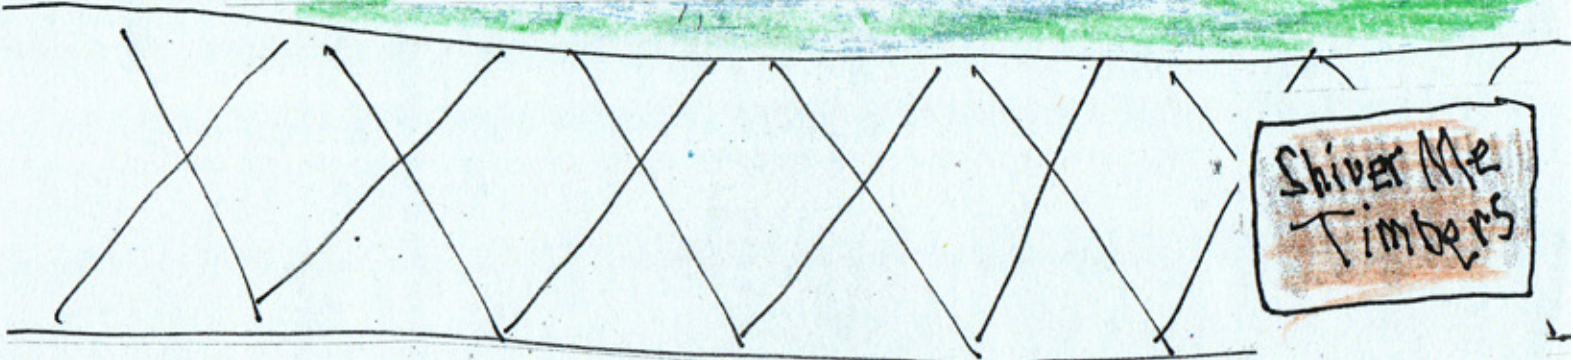

Watch out, as the visitors enter the Walk the Plank exhibit, those floating logs are really crocodiles until suddenly they snap their jaws! Watch them quickly come on shore!

Many tigers love to swim in the Shiver Me Timbers section. They enjoy showing off by splashing wildly!

Elsie knows that running a zoo has a lot of responsibility. This means cleaning the cages, feeding them the correct food, giving them the right medicine and keeping them safe. Giving them attention and love are the most important of all!
