Smoky Hills PBS to Provide LIVE Coverage of Governor Laura Kelly's 2026 State of the State

BUNKER HILL, KS – Smoky Hills PBS is excited to provide LIVE coverage of Governor Laura Kelly's 2026 State of the State on Tuesday, January 13th, at 6:30 PM CT.

Join us as Kansas Governor Laura Kelly delivers the annual address, outlining key priorities and initiatives for the year ahead. This special live broadcast will keep you informed about the future direction of Kansas and important legislative topics.

"Providing live coverage of the State of the State is part of our commitment to public service," said Michael Quade, Director of Broadcasting at Smoky Hills PBS. "We're proud to bring Kansans direct access to Governor Laura Kelly's 2026 State of the State Address, live from the Statehouse, so viewers can hear firsthand about the priorities and issues shaping our state."

Streaming access will also be available on our YouTube channel and Smoky Hills PBS' Facebook page. Set your notification so you don't miss this important speech:
