Night of LOCAL Stories

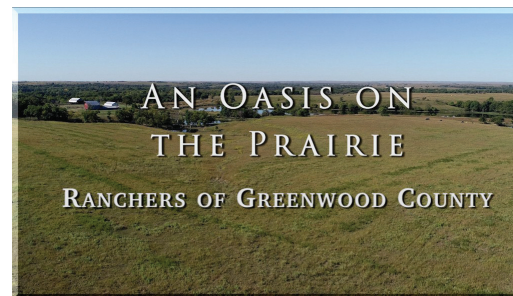

Tuesday, August 11th

7 PM

This documentary chronicles the 10-year history of the Main Street Arts Council and the evolution of its Summer Theater Festival across northwest Kansas.

8 PM

Set in the breathtaking Flint Hills of Greenwood County, this new local documentary follows ranch families whose lives are woven into the land. This program looks back at a century of change — and ahead to the real challenges today's ranchers face.

9:30 PM

Minersville is an award-winning documentary about the impact and spirit of a 1870s lignite coal-mining ghost town in the Belleville-Concordia area. The film tells the lost story and legacy of the town's 500 residents and 28 mines.
