Smoky Hills PBS Has A New Look

BUNKER HILL, KS – Smoky Hills announced this week that they have a new look as well as a new website! The new look and website can be found at www.smokyhillspbs.org.

Amanda Smith, Director of Marketing at Smoky Hills PBS, explained that the new look would reflect the fact that Smoky Hills is not just television, adding, “You can find Smoky Hills PBS in avenues other than just television. You can find Smoky Hills PBS on your tablet, computer, or even your smartphone. We bring much more to Central and Western Kansas than just television.”

The look of Smoky Hills PBS will be the only change. Everything else remains the same. You can learn more about Smoky Hills PBS on their website www.smokyhillspbs.org.

“We are so excited about our new look,” said Larry Calvery, General Manager of Smoky Hills PBS. “We are PBS for Central and Western Kansas and we wanted that to be clear with our new look. Smoky Hills PBS can be found throughout our viewing area covering area sports, providing Family Fun Day events, airing local productions from our studio in Bunker Hill, as well as providing quality, educational programming for kids! We are owned and supported by the communities we are dedicated to serving, we are Smoky Hills PBS!”

Smoky Hills PBS serves 71 counties in central and western Kansas and has been named the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Non-Metro Station of the Year.
