GENERALLY SPEAKING

I have always enjoyed working on a college campus. While our work at the station doesn't follow the academic calendar, I love the cyclical markers of time passing as campus slows down in the summer and gears back up in the fall. As reliably as the changing color of the leaves on the trees, the number of cars in the parking lots on campus tells me autumn has arrived at last.

Rachel Knight,
General Manager

For 23 years, the fall semester at Missouri State University has brought with it the Public Affairs Conference – a weeklong celebration and exploration of MSU's statewide mission in public affairs. That longstanding commitment to put civic engagement at the heart of its mission is one of the reasons Ozarks Public Broadcasting is licensed to the institution. Our shared values of lifelong learning, community engagement, and civil discourse make it a perfect match.

We are proud to be part of the MSU Public Affairs Conference and are excited to host Marielle Segarra for this year's event. Many across the Ozarks will know Marielle as the host of NPR's Life Kit, where she brings the most practical issues in our lives – relationships, money management, parenting – to the experts and delivers clear takeaways we can all understand and implement.

I hope you'll join us for Marielle's presentation on Thursday, October 1 at 12:30 p.m. in the Plaster Student Union. And thank you, as always, for powering public media in the Ozarks and the curiosity, conversations, and connections that come with it.

Rachel Knight, General Manager
