The consequential story of criminal justice in America as it has never before been told - from the colonial era to today. This series explores arguments Americans have had over the meaning of justice for more than 250 years.

Monday - Thursday, November 16 - 19 @ 7 & 9PM

Monday - 16
A House of Repentance
(Beginnings - 1880)
Europeans bring their harsh laws to America, but some colonists, inspired by the Enlightenment, argue that brutal public punishments make "bad men worse" and look to a new way to mete out justice – the penitentiary.

Tuesday - 17
The Criminal Type
(1880 - 1929)
A new generation of Progressives exposes the cruelty, corruption, and prejudice in the criminal justice system and sets about trying to improve prisons, reform police and make the nation fairer and more just.

Wednesday - 18
Public Enemies
(1929 - 1969)
The exploits of gangsters like Al Capone and outlaws like John Dillinger fill the headlines, which makes them folk heroes in their own time and the FBI launches a public relations push to build support for its "war on crime."

Thursday - 19
Tough on Crime
(1970 - Onward)
Cities are struck with poverty, drug addiction and violent crime, and communities rally behind politicians who promote harsher laws and punishments. But as these policies play out, some Americans will question the true cost of the system.

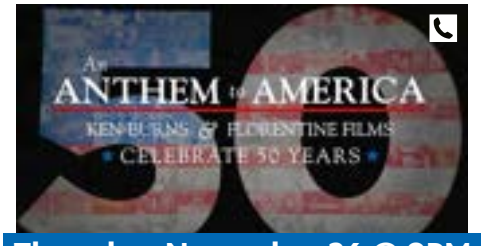

Thursday, November 26 @ 7PM

Paul Simon brings his critically acclaimed and Grammy-nominated Seven Psalms to life in this first-ever live performance of the complete piece for his Quiet Celebration, an intimate evening spanning his vast career.

MARATHON
Thursday, November 26 @ 8AM

A new six-part, 12-hour documentary directed by Ken Burns, Sarah Botstein and David Schmidt examines how America's founding turned the world upside-down. Thirteen British colonies on the Atlantic Coast rose in rebellion, won their independence, and established a new form of government that radically reshaped the continent and inspired centuries of democratic movements around the globe. An expansive look at the virtues and contradictions of the war and the birth of the United States of America, the film follows dozens of figures from a wide variety of backgrounds. Viewers will experience the war through the memories of the men and women who experienced it.

Ask This Old House solves the steady stream of home improvement problems faced by our viewers - and we make house calls! The series features some familiar faces, including Kevin O'Connor, general contractor Tom Silva, plumbing and heating expert Richard Trethewey, and landscape contractor Jenn Nawada.

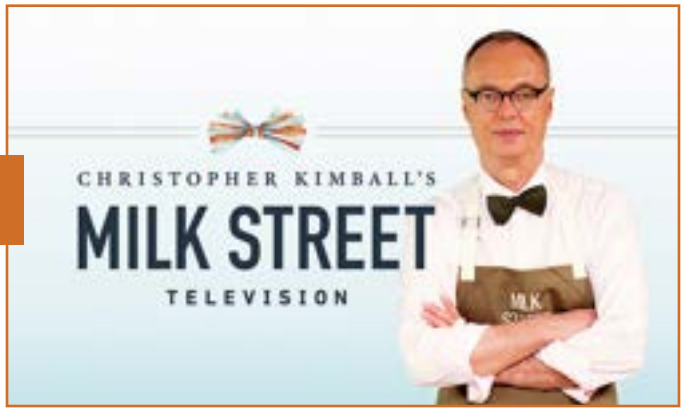

Bob Ross relaxes viewers and encourages the painting hobbyist. Using his "wet-on-wet" technique, Bob paints natural scenes with bold strokes across the canvas, from cascading waterfalls to snow-covered forests. Bob Ross' calm disposition and easy-to-follow instruction remind viewers that "there are no mistakes, only happy accidents."
