Rory Gallagher is a national hero in Ireland, and is renowned around the world for his musicianship and stagecraft. Rory played a powerful blend of blues rock rooted in traditional electric blues, but infused with hard rock energy, Celtic folk influences, and raw improvisation.

In the summer of 2025, guitar virtuoso Joe Bonamassa, also a Gallagher disciple, played a tribute concert to him in Rory's hometown of Cork, Ireland - with the blessing of Rory's family. "The Spirit of Rory" is the result.

Thursday, March 5 @ 7 & 8:30PM

NEW DRAMA SUNDAYS STARTING MARCH 22

@ 7PM CALL THE MIDWIFE

It's 1971, and a new era dawns with the Women's Liberation movement in the UK. As the year unfolds, the team faces serious cases, including a premature birth, slavery, carbon monoxide poisoning, male breast cancer, child abuse, and lupus.

The Forsytes chronicles the trials and triumphs of a wealthy Victorian stockbroking family, whose generations find themselves torn between tradition and the personal pursuit of happiness. Inspired by John Galsworthy's celebrated Forsyte Saga novels, The Forsytes portrays events that take place before those covered in Galsworthy's books.

@ 9PM

Sam Claflin stars as Edmond Dantes, a nineteen-year-old sailor who, when falsely accused of treason, is imprisoned without trial in a grim island fortress off Marseille, France. After many years of captivity, Dantes finally escapes and discovers treasure, making him one of the richest men in the world. Under the identity of the Count of Monte Cristo, he plans to take revenge on those who wrongly accused him.

Monday, March 30 @ 9PM, Tuesday, March 31 @ 8:30 & 9:30PM

Henry David Thoreau helped define modern environmentalism and nonviolent resistance, yet his life has been obscured by myth. The author of Walden and Civil Disobedience, he was brilliant but flawed, idealistic but opinionated. A writer, scientist and activist, his words resonate urgently with today's challenges as humanity looks for ways to live in harmony with nature—and each other.
