NEW NATURE SPECIAL

Sesame Street and the Great Elephant Adventure

Premieres: Wednesday, October 14 at 7:00PM/8:00MT

Join Elmo and the Sesame Street friends on a once-in-a-lifetime African safari adventure. After adopting an orphaned elephant online, Elmo, Abby and Nina decide to travel to The Sheldrick Wildlife Trust in Kenya to meet the young elephant and the keepers who care for her. In Sesame Street's first-ever safari, the friends embark on an unforgettable journey of discovery, taking them from the caring confines of the elephant sanctuary to the unpredictable African bush, where they come face to face with some of nature's most iconic wildlife.

This episode marks the debut of Elmo and the gang on PBS's iconic Nature program. It's a truly special partnership that viewers of all ages won't want to miss.

When Our Community Needs Us Most

Dear Friends,

As I write this, our community is living through one of the most devastating disasters in Spokane's history.

The Spokane Complex fire has forced some 65,000 people from their homes, and 846 structures have burned. Behind those numbers are thousands of individual stories: families waiting to learn whether they have homes to return to, neighbors taking one another in, and first responders working under extraordinary conditions.

This disaster has touched the KSPS PBS family personally, too. Our longtime Production Director, Jim Zimmer, lost his home. Jim has spent more than four decades helping KSPS PBS tell the stories of this community. Now he and his family are living through a story none of us would ever have wished for them.

In a disaster preparedness course, I once learned a definition that has stayed with me: A disaster is an emergency that overwhelms our preparedness. Those words feel especially meaningful today.

No community can prepare for every contingency. But we can learn. We can adapt. And we can make ourselves more useful when our neighbors need us. That is part of what public media is for.

Broadcast television is more than a way to deliver the programs you love. It is vital public infrastructure. KSPS PBS carries Emergency Alert System coverage across 16 U.S. counties throughout the Inland Northwest, helping urgent public safety information reach communities across our region.

And when disaster disrupts the systems we rely on every day, redundancy matters. Internet service can fail. Cellular networks can become overloaded. Power can disappear. Over-the-air television gives our community another pathway for critical information. Broadcast television provides another way for important information to get through.

This fire also showed us where we can do better. Evacuation areas changed. Roads closed. Shelters opened. Rumors traveled quickly. People needed clear, vetted information. So we are adapting.

KSPS PBS is developing capabilities to put timely emergency information directly on our television channels, including information crawls and on-screen graphics. At kspbs.org/fire, we are also maintaining vetted information and recovery resources.

Our education team has been at evacuation centers and schools, providing PBS KIDS activities, school supplies, and trusted resources to affected families.

This is what public service looks like to me. Sometimes it is a child learning with Daniel Tiger. Sometimes it is a documentary that helps us understand one another. And sometimes, on the worst day imaginable, it is making sure someone can find information they can trust.

Recovery will not be quick. But Spokane will rebuild. KSPS PBS will be here, learning from this disaster and doing our part to make our community more informed, connected and prepared.

Thank you for making that public service possible.

MAKING COMMUNITIES SAFER

A Mission of Public Service

PBS and its 330+ local member stations leverage the nationwide reach and reliability of broadcasting to ensure vital information is available when it matters most. As America's most trusted institution, PBS is committed to public service, delivering emergency communications to keep communities safe and informed.

Emergency Alerts

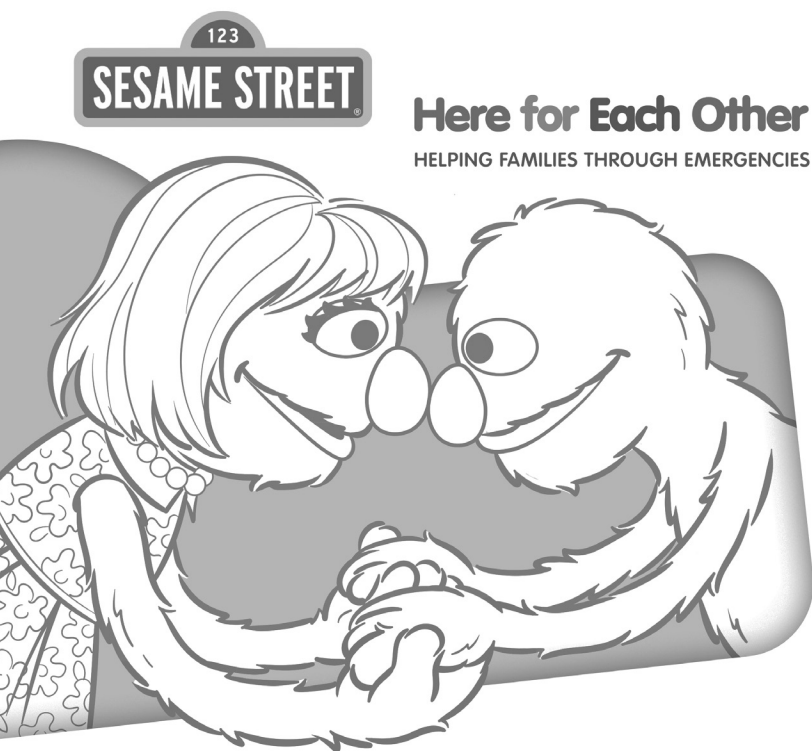

Preparedness & Safety Education

Emergency Alert System

Public media stations, like KSPS PBS, provide life-saving alerts by inserting EAS messages into their broadcasts. As key participants in the national alerting system, we deliver emergency messages quickly and reliably, keeping communities informed during emergencies.

Emergency Information Crawl

This summer KSPS PBS also launched an emergency information crawl designed to keep our viewers informed during significant events. The crawl appears at the beginning of programs in the lower third of the screen and provides high-level updates, situational awareness, and information about community resources.

PBS KIDS Resources

Events like this summer's wildfires can be frightening and confusing for children. KSPS PBS is here to help with trusted, age-appropriate resources from PBS KIDS and Sesame Workshop that can help children understand what's happening, express their feelings and build resilience.

Visit kspbs.org/helping-children-cope to learn more.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GIFT TO KSPS PBS!

Because you support Public Television, you...

...explore new ideas and broaden your horizons....think music, theater, dance and art should be accessible to everyone....love to curl up with a good documentary or a trusted current affairs program...grew up with Mister Rogers; and you value research-based children's programs for pre-K kids from all walks of life. Your gift supports the programs you value. Here's how you can amplify the impact of your donation:

Become a Sustainer

Sustainers are the lifeblood of the station—because you make automatic, ongoing, monthly donations from your bank account. Instead of renewing your commitment each year, your automatic monthly contribution keeps us going. If you're not already a Sustainer, this is the easiest way to amplify your donor impact. Call 800-735-2377 and ask to become a sustainer or visit KSPS.org to learn more.

Automatic Withdrawal

The only thing better than a sustainer is a sustainer who gives by automatic bank withdrawal. Called EFT or PAD, this payment method is more secure and convenient than a credit or debit card charge, because your bank account can't expire or be lost or stolen. Plus, with lower transaction fees, more of your donation goes to the programs you love! Instead of your card number, we'll need your bank's routing and account numbers. So grab your checkbook and call 800-735-2377 today.

Employer Matching

You can double or triple the impact of your gift by signing up for a matching gift from your employer. Hundreds of companies are already doing it! Ask your HR manager if your company will match your donations to KSPS PBS, or visit KSPS.org/employer-match to see if your company is already listed.

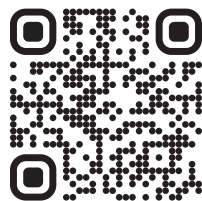

Vehicle Donation

Thinking about selling your car, boat, motorcycle or truck, but unsure how much you can get for it? Donate your unneeded vehicle to KSPS PBS. Vehicles of all shapes and sizes are accepted. Your vehicle will be towed at no cost to you. Then it will be auctioned and the proceeds will be donated to support the programs you love. Visit KSPS.org/vehicle or call 844-KSPS-CAR.

Leave a Legacy

To ensure that the programming you love is available for generations to come, you can make a legacy gift to KSPS PBS in your will, life insurance policy, trust or foundation. You can make an incalculable impact and your gift can benefit you and your family today. For more information about planned giving or for sample verbiage for your own estate planning, please call Jill Nunemaker at 509-443-7728 or email jnunemaker@ksps.org.

Meet Your Station

Sheryl Johnson, Controller/Director of Finance

What is your role at KSPS PBS?

I'm responsible for the finance and accounting of the organization, ensuring everything is accurate and timely. This allows us to make informed decisions to serve our communities and mission.

What is your favorite KSPS PBS show?

As a seasoned traveler, Rick Steves' Europe is my favorite show. I've been fortunate to travel to Europe several times. I took my first trip solo with his research leading the way.

What's your preferred way to watch?

I prefer to watch over the air. Although I access programming online and through Passport, I enjoy watching on a large screen to really appreciate the full experience.

What's one thing you wish more people knew about KSPS PBS?

I wish more people knew about our Education Department and how much they contribute to our community. They go to schools, libraries, and events all over our broadcasting area, supporting children, providing educational opportunities, and inspiring curiosity through KSPS PBS content and activities. They're continuously improving and expanding to serve the community, and they genuinely care.
