Favorite Britcoms Return to Saturday Nights on Montana PBS

Waiting for God
SATURDAYS 7:30PM; BEGINS 7/12  Also Fri 1:30am
Feeling old? You will be, after a visit to the Bayview Retirement Village. The food’s appalling, the staff treat you like incontinent children, and any show of independence is strictly frowned upon. But two elderly eccentrics are prepared neither to give in nor grow old gracefully just yet. As they find themselves thrown together by circumstances beyond their control, Tom (Graham Crowden) and Diana (Stephanie Cole) strike up an uneasy alliance that leads to many adventures. Also stars Janine Duvitski, Daniel Hill, Andrew Tourell, and Sandra Payne.

As Time Goes By
SATURDAYS 7:00PM; BEGINS 7/20  Also Fri 1am
Love gets a second chance in this warm and witty comedy starring Dame Judi Dench and Geoffrey Palmer as long-lost sweethearts Jean Pargetter and Lionel Hardcastle, who lost touch after a whirlwind romance in the early 1950s when he was posted to Korea. They are reunited 38 years later when Lionel returns to England to write his memoirs, and Jean’s agency supplies him with a secretary. Though both are free agents (Lionel is divorced and Jean is a widow), they are older now and more set in their ways, so they don’t fall into each other’s arms. Still, there’s hope for flying sparks.

The annual Big Sandy chili feed is always a chance to come together, but it takes on a deeper meaning for a local ranching family. Everyone at the Talking Bird Saloon in St. Regis has something to say - even the resident myna bird. A motley mix of musicians and friends interpret the songs of one of rock’s greatest legends. Since 2013, the band has been “Bringing the Petty” to venues and festivals across the great northwest and beyond, thrilling die-hard Petty fans and new converts alike.

New Wolf Management
Montana PBS Reports: IMPACT continues its second season and is proud to maintain the commitment to strong News/Public Affairs reporting for our viewers. In this episode, Missoula’s bus system recently changed its policy to allow passengers to carry guns after a gun association threatened a lawsuit. Will other cities follow suit? We’ll take a deeper look at the balance between local government policies and the Second Amendment. Also, Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks is working on a new conservation and management plan for the state's Grey Wolf population, whose federal protection status may be changing again soon. Montana PBS talks with advocates and agencies to learn more about what the proposed changes could mean and how current conflict management strategies affect one of Montana’s top predators.

Airs 7/21 10am; 7/22 2am; 7/26 12:30pm
Rise of the Freemen

The FBI labeled them as domestic terrorists. They threatened to hang local sheriffs, attorneys, and judges. They turned against their own friends and families. They wrote hundreds of millions of dollars in bad checks. How did a group of longtime Montana farmers and ranchers turn into a seething anti-government movement, intent on overthrowing the status quo and starting their own country? “Rise of the Freemen” explores the anger, desperation, and ideology of the Montana Freemen. Archival footage and exclusive FBI photos and documents trace a rapid escalation of threats against elected officials and the media, the sprawling bank fraud case, and the dramatic undercover arrest of Freemen leaders that sparked the longest armed standoff in FBI history.

Airs 7/1 2am

Ringside Shelby

Thanks to a publicity stunt, on July 4, 1923, Shelby, Montana, transformed itself briefly from a little oil town of a few hundred folks to a bustling city of thousands streaming into its new 40,000-seat arena to see the legendary Jack Dempsey fight Tommy Gibbons. Many boxing enthusiasts think the Shelby encounter was the most challenging of Dempsey’s career.

Ivan Doig: Landscapes of a Western Mind

Ivan Doig (1939-2015) mined his hardscrabble Montana childhood to create a poetic and iconic body of literary work. His captivating, and at times heart-breaking, narratives embody the harshness and beauty of the western landscape, draw upon his experience as journalist and historian, and celebrate the grit required for his beloved characters to survive in challenging social and physical climates. His dedication to language, people and place has made him one of the most influential and celebrated authors of the American West.

Problem Solving and Computational Thinking!

Work it Out Wombats!

MONTANA PBS–KIDS: AIRS MON – THU 8PM Also airs on Montana PBS–HD: Sat 9:30am

WORK IT OUT WOMBATSTM, a PBS KIDS® animated series for preschoolers and kindergartners, follows the adventures of a playful trio of marsupial siblings – Malik, Zadie, and Zeke – who live with their grandmother (named Super!) in a fantastical treehouse apartment complex. The Treeborhood is home to a diverse and quirky community of neighbors, who just happen to be wombats, snakes, moose, kangaroos, iguanas, fish, tarsiers, and eagles! With an educational focus on computational thinking, WORK IT OUT WOMBATSTM introduces children to a creative way of thinking that helps them solve problems and complete tasks in more organized ways, using a toolkit of skills from computer science.

Donate your old vehicle to Montana PBS

Door handles that don’t work. Broken AC. Buzzing, blown-out speakers. Sure, it still runs, but at some point, that old car becomes a bigger hassle to maintain than it’s worth. If you can relate, why not donate that jalopy to Montana PBS and support the local community?

We’ll pick it up at no cost to you and we accept all kinds of vehicles, including motorcycles, RVs, boats, and farm equipment. Donations are tax deductible and come with a one year membership that includes access to our premium streaming service, Montana PBS Passport.

A rare sighting of the British narrator in his natural habitat

AH, BEHOLD!

We find ourselves in a most serendipitous circumstance. The British narrator Davidus Attenbovorogus has emerged from his months-long slumber to grace PBS Passport with his mellifluous voice and reverence for the natural world in documentaries like Green Planet, Nature: Attenborough’s Wonder of Song, and Nature: The Bat Man of Mexico. Our journey into PBS’s magnificent tapestry of science and natural history programming is certain to entertain and enthral with such a steadfast voice to guide us.

A New NOVA Special Mini-Series

Sea Change:
The Gulf of Maine, a NOVA Special Presentation
WEDNESDAYS 9PM; BEGINNING 7/24
Also airs Mondays 1pm
A special presentation of NOVA, is a story about a sea within the sea, a body of water that is warming 99% faster than the global ocean. What happens here, for the animals in the water, for the jobs dependent upon them, and for the millions of people along its shores, is likely to happen worldwide. We are at a crossroads for the future of the Gulf – and our oceans. Does it retain enough of its biodiversity and regenerative strength to weather the human-induced storm? Is the sheer beauty of the place and spectacular range of its creatures enough to wake us to the stakes? A fascinating tale about a regional location with profound global implications.
