Enjoy More of the Best in Montana's Music Scene

MT 11th & Grant with Eric Funk

The premiere outlet for music performances in Montana, presenting a diverse selection of the state's most acclaimed, accomplished, and pioneering talent. The Emmy-winning performance series also devotes time to each artist's personal story, insights into their music, and their approach to life.

Off in the Woods

SATURDAY, 11/12 7PM Also 11/14 10pm, 11/16 2am

From Polson, Montana, Off in the Woods delivers an electrifying mix of all original soul, funk, reggae, and open tuned acoustic grooves. Featuring a full horn section, Hammond organ, synth, and rich vocals, their sound is as distinctive as their story. The five original members, who grew up together on the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Reservation, have been performing side by side since sixth grade. The tight knit group has worked their way up from free gigs at dive bars to playing historic theaters and festivals, and their resume includes performances with many national and international touring bands. With tight rhythms, powerful horns, and undeniable chemistry, Off in the Woods brings a dynamic, deeply rooted performance to 11th & Grant with Eric Funk.

Musical Greats for the Holiday Weekend

► Dolly Parton: Here I Am

SATURDAY 11/28 8PM Also 11/30 1am

The undisputed queen of country music, Dolly Parton, had one of the most stellar careers of any musician. In this documentary, Dolly herself let us in on her fondest memories, her influences and her process, and we explore the legendary talent that has made her successful and well-loved.

Blending unprecedented and candid access to the great lady herself, copious archival performance footage of dozens of staples including "9 to 5," "Jolene," "I Will Always Love You," and "Here You Come Again," and observations from collaborators, friends, and fans-including Jane Fonda, Lily Tomlin, Mac Davis, Linda Perry, Hillary Scott, Charles Kelley, and Jerry Douglas-this exhaustive look back at the life and career of Dolly Parton is one no fan should miss out on.

Montana PBS Reports: IMPACT

Rural Water/Dino Egg Discovery

For decades, communities in central and eastern Montana have suffered from drinking water of poor quality or disappearing supply. Four projects in the state are aiming to address that by building regional water systems that stretch hundreds of miles. These projects are expensive and have required extensive, continued support from the federal government, which is itself no small feat. IMPACT profiles the Central Montana Regional Water Authority, which has been organizing for over 20 years to serve towns and landowners between Harlowton and Melstone. Plus, a mysterious fossil dig in Montana is turning up unique deposits of dinosaur eggs, some the size of basketballs and buried in huge mounds. IMPACT travels to North Central Montana to see what species of dinosaur these eggs belong to, and what researchers are hoping to understand from studying them. The story features Dr. Denver Fowler, director of the Badlands Dinosaur Museum in Dickinson, North Dakota, who says this latest discovery is just a fraction of the fossils he believes are waiting to be unearthed in what could be a major paleontological discovery.

Celebrate a Piece of America's Great History

We Chose to go to the Moon

TUESDAY 11/10 7PM Also 11/14 1am

Recorded live at Carnegie Hall, historian John Monsky tells the story of America's journey to the Moon and the heroes, in and outside of NASA, who made it possible.

The program highlights the euphoria and the heartbreak of America's space race in this immersive performance narrated by historian John Monsky and directed by Tony winner Michael Mayer (Chess, Spring Awakening). With his signature mix of soaring music, archival film and photography, historic flags, and personal stories of all those involved—from astronauts and their families, including Neil and then-wife Janet Armstrong, to the unsung heroes of Mission Control—Monsky explores one of America's greatest accomplishments in singular fashion.

Gathering a herd of cows at a ranch in White Sulphur Springs, Montana

The Fall Season ContinuesMT Montana AG Live

A regular call-in program discussing topics ranging from large-scale ag techniques, smaller specialty production, new products, emerging markets, scientific research, animal husbandry, forest & grassland management, and ag estate management, to backyard gardening questions.

SUNDAYS AT 6PM

REPEATS THE NEXT SUNDAY MORNING AT 11AM

Ranchers Stewardship Alliance

SUNDAY, 11/1 6PM Also 11/8 11am

Rural communities depend on production ag to thrive. By default, ranchers must be conservationists to sustain their operations. Montana's Ranchers Stewardship Alliance (RSA) helps on both fronts. This week, we welcome Dale Veseth to the panel to learn more about his role in the RSA.

International Marketing of Montana's Production Ag

SUNDAY, 11/8 6PM Also 11/15 11am

Montana produces an amazing variety of ag products. Equally amazing is the number of places around the globe that those products reach. This week the panel welcomes Andy Fjeseth, Bureau Chief, and Weston Merrill, International Trade Specialist, both with the Montana Department of Agriculture.

Rangeland in Montana

SUNDAY, 11/15 6PM Also 11/22 11am

Montana is home to millions of rangeland acres. They provide forage for the state's ranching industry, habitat for wildlife, outdoor recreation, and even carbon capture. This week, we welcome Georgia Harrison, Range Ecologist at MSU to enlighten us about this unique and valuable ecosystem.

Celebrate Those who've Dedicated Themselves to Service

Montana, Montana, Glory of the Seas The Story of the Two USS Montana Warships

THURSDAY 11/5 7PM Also 11/8 10am, 11/9 2am

MONTANA, MONTANA, GLORY OF THE SEAS explores the irony of landlocked Montana's unique relationship with the U.S. Navy for more than a century because of two very different USS MONTANA warships, and the sailors who warmed hearts across Big Sky Country. It's a historical tale of respect and support.

Pati Jinich Explores PanAmericana

WEDNESDAYS AT 9PM

A journey inspired by the Pan-American Highway to celebrate the many cultures of the Americas and how they enrich each other.

► Montana & Wyoming - Small Acts, Wide Ripples

WEDNESDAY 11/4 9PM Also 11/9 1pm: WORLD 11/10 6pm & 11pm, 11/11 7am

Pati begins the next leg of her Pan-American journey at the northern border of the United States, moving south into Montana and Wyoming to explore how change often begins with one person deciding something must be preserved, restored, or reimagined. On the Blackfeet Reservation, she watches the buffalo return to land they were absent from for over a century. At the Cuts Wood School, students are learning Blackfoot as a first language, bringing back a tongue that was nearly lost. In Missoula, she meets rescue dogs trained to protect crops, wildlife, ecosystems, and endangered species, and visits Soft Landing Missoula, where families from Syria, Eritrea, the Congo, and Venezuela share ancestral recipes as they rebuild life in a new country. In White Sulphur Springs, a town of fewer than a thousand people, women own one business after another along the main street. The journey ends in Buffalo, Wyoming, where Pati meets the founder of a community wool mill built to steady the shepherding families around her, and finds sheep wagons, lukainka sausage, and the legacy of Basque immigration.

Powerful Story – 4 Nights

Crime and Punishment in America

MONDAY – THURSDAY, 11/16 – 11/19

AIRING AT 7PM AND AGAIN AT 9PM EACH NIGHT

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT IN AMERICA tells the consequential story of criminal justice in America as it has never before been told - from the colonial era to today. This series explores arguments Americans have had over the meaning of justice for more than 250 years.

A House of Repentance (Beginnings to 1880)

MONDAY 11/16 7PM & 9PM Also 11/18 1am; WORLD 11/29 8pm, 11/30 12mdnt & 8am

Europeans bring their harsh laws to America, but some colonists, inspired by the Enlightenment, argue that brutal public punishments make “bad men worse” and look to a new way to mete out justice – the penitentiary.

The Criminal Type (1880-1929)

TUESDAY 11/17 7PM & 9PM Also 11/19 1am; WORLD 12/6 8pm, 12/7 12mdnt & 8am

A new generation of Progressives exposes the cruelty, corruption, and prejudice in the criminal justice system and sets about trying to improve prisons, reform police and make the nation fairer and more just.

Public Enemies (1929-1969)

WEDNESDAY 11/18 7PM & 9PM Also 11/20 1am; WORLD 12/13 8pm, 12/14 12mdnt & 8am

The exploits of gangsters like Al Capone and outlaws like John Dillinger fill the headlines, which makes them folk heroes in their own time and the FBI launches a public relations push to build support for its “war on crime.”

Tough on Crime (1970-Onward)

THURSDAY 11/19 7PM & 9PM Also 11/21 1am; WORLD 12/20 8pm, 12/21 12mdnt & 8am

Cities are struck with poverty, drug addiction and violent crime, and communities rally behind politicians who promote harsher laws and punishments. But as these policies play out, some Americans will question the true cost of the system.

In 1976, three aspiring filmmakers from Hampshire College — Ken Burns, Roger Sherman and Buddy Squires — founded Florentine Films. Their first film, Brooklyn Bridge, was released in 1981 and earned an Academy Award nomination. Over the next 50 years, Burns and his colleagues made more than a dozen critically-acclaimed documentary films that explored the American experience, including Jazz, Jackie Robinson, Baseball, Mark Twain, The Civil War, The American Revolution, The Statue of Liberty, and The Dust Bowl.

AN ANTHEM TO AMERICA includes archival video clips from a half-century of groundbreaking films. Interviews with Burns and many of his closest collaborators discuss the signature elements of Florentine documentaries, including filming at the location where events happened, using first-person voices to tell the story, and the cinematic treatment of photographs dubbed the "Ken Burns effect."

STAY THE COURSE

A year ago, when our federal funding was cut, Montanans like you stepped up, bridged the gap, and completely replaced what we lost.

We still need you.

The reserves that helped carry us through that first year have now been exhausted, and we find ourselves in a new financial reality. Federal funding has not returned and is unlikely to do so anytime soon.

Rather than asking you to bridge another gap, we're asking you to Stay the Course this Winter Pledge Drive, November 26 - December 13. Keep the path to free, independent public media clear and accessible to future generations of Montanans.

All Creatures Great and Small: Chapter Six

SUNDAY 11/29 8PM

Join the cast and creators for behind-the-scenes insights into Season 6, where life in Darrowby is finding its rhythm again as the war winds down.

Themes explored in ALL CREATURES GREAT AND SMALL: CHAPTER SIX include the growing Herriot family; there are now two children, and James and Helen have moved back to Heston Grange to live with Helen's dad. Relationships are changing in the Alderson family, and Jenny wants to spread her wings and go to nursing school. Mrs. Hall has been away caring for her son, who was injured in the war, but she's convinced to return by James and Tristan. And Tristan has found love with Charlotte, played by new cast member Gaia Wise.
