Hello Kids Club Members!

Buzzz! It’s September, I hope you are having fun at school. This month, we celebrate Grandparents Day and Hispanic Heritage Month.

Join us for the MPB Library Literacy Tour stop at Laurel-Jones County Library on September 30. Click the MPB Library Literacy Tour image for more information and to register. Best wishes!

Happy Birthday!

If your birthday is in September, click the image below to see your name.
10 Picture Books About Careers

By: Dolisha Mitchell

It’s important for children to learn about the world of work — the kind of jobs there are and why people take the jobs they take — so they begin to get a sense of the opportunities that will be there for them in the future. It can also be fun to talk to your child about their interests, skills, and talents and think about the different kinds of jobs that exist and how those jobs might connect with these interests and skills.

For a list of these books, click here.

Upcoming Events

#Jamming on the Job” Helps Kids Explore Interesting Careers

By: Temis Laguna

"Jamming on the Job" is a podcast full of love for music and storytelling!

Christina Sanabria and Andrés Salguero (GRAMMY award winning musicians and children’s book authors) along with Pierce Freelon (a GRAMMY nominated musician, author, and educator) teamed up with PBS KIDS to create a podcast that brings listeners of all ages into the adventure, sparking curiosity about the world of work.

Click here for more details.

Click here to check out the podcast, videos, and activities.

Shaping an Engaging Learning Environment

Children learn in so many different ways: from grown-ups, each other, and even the environment. Young children rely on their senses to engage with the world around them and the spaces they are in. When the spaces they are in are safe, accessible, and engaging, the possibilities for learning can be endless.

To read more on this topic, click here.
Episode 1, Christina and Andrés meet Marco, a Nurse Practitioner

Coloring

While you listen, meet Christina, Andrés, BoomBox...

I wonder...
How can Nurse Marco help Andrés feel better?

Christina
Andrés
BoomBox