

OLD FRIENDS & NEW BEGINNINGS

This month, Grantchester kicks off its final season in summer 1963 with everyone at a crossroads. Plus, the premiere of several powerful documentaries, the return of the British thriller Patience and a new nature series from Down Under.

Mon, June 1, 7 PM: On Great Performances, Josh Groban showcases his most beloved songs and new material at London's Union Chapel.

Tue, June 2, 8 PM: Women of World War II: More Untold Stories celebrates the women who broke codes, split atoms, gathered the news and crossed the frontlines.

Thu, June 11, 9 PM: On NC Weekend, host Deborah Holt Noel discovers what makes Durham such a must-visit destination.

Sun, June 14, 8 PM: On the season premiere of Patience, a photographer is found dead with a stake through his heart. Patience and new DI Frankie Monroe seek answers.

Sun, June 14, 9 PM: Alphy faces truths about his mom and faith while Geordie grows jaded on the season premiere of Grantchester.

Mon, June 15, 10 PM: The Last Twins tells the story of Erno Spiegel, who saved dozens of twins from almost certain death at Auschwitz.

Tue, June 16, 9 PM: Becoming Katharine Graham charts the newspaper publisher's accidental rise to power, her role in exposing the Watergate scandal and her enduring legacy.

Wed, June 17, 10 PM: Experience a terrain that's as harsh and unforgiving as it is beautiful in the new three-part series The Kimberley: Australia's Wild West.

Mon, June 22, 10 PM: On Independent Lens, artist Rashaad Newsome creates an exhibition honoring Black and queer culture.

Mon, June 29, 10 PM: Declarations: Black Americans & the Revolutionary War follows the stories of enslaved and freed Black Americans who fought to define democracy and their liberty.
