KBTC VIEWER GUIDE

KBTC  PBS

Cook's Country

Where family recipes from every corner of America are re-imagined for home cooks everywhere. New Season begins Saturdays at 4:30pm starting September 20.

DeANNE HAMILTON
Executive Director/General Manager

Dear Friends,

As you probably know by now, federal funding for public media was rescinded in July, and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB), which served as the steward of the federal government's investment in public television, has been forced to close its doors. However, KBTC, PBS, and PBS KIDS are still here, and we aren't going anywhere.

KBTC remains your local PBS station, and we will fight to continue our mission of service to this community, ensuring the vital programs and services you depend on continue without interruption.

Thanks to careful planning and generous donors like you, KBTC has a small fund that gives us a strong footing as we begin navigating the year ahead. But that fund was never meant to replace long-term, sustainable support. It's a bridge - not a solution.

We now face the future as a fully community-funded organization, and we need you with us more than ever as we attempt to make up for this sudden shortfall.

Your continued support will help preserve the tradition of the Public Broadcasting Service in our community today and for generations to come.

We know we can count on you. Thank you for standing with KBTC!

Tom Layson
Managing Editor & Producer-Host

As we roll into September and season seventeen of Northwest Now, it must be said that the loss of federal funding in July was painful, but we are still here, and we will sail forth undeterred. All of us at KBTC carry a strong commitment to providing local programming, and particularly a public affairs program like Northwest Now, where we talk, not shout, but talk about policy, issues, and ideas.

Our programs in September include Back to School 2025, which will feature a discussion with the state Superintendent of Schools, the Immigration Fight discussing ICE activities in the Pacific Northwest, and Laura Hautala, who is the new columnist at The News Tribune. Our special this fall is called Fire on the Horizon from the same team that brought you last year's award-winning Saving the Source program. We're also doing a special project with the local producers of a national program airing on KBTC for the first time this fall.

I look forward to seeing you Friday nights at 7:30.

NOVA: Human | 8pm Tuesday September 30

In this stunningly cinematic five-part series, paleoanthropologist Ella Al-Shamahi traces the surprising story of human origins. Remarkable new fossil evidence, modern DNA sequencing, and other cutting-edge scientific tools are shedding new light on the lives and journeys of long-vanished human species.

The Volunteers: Mountain Rescue Brings Us Home |
10pm Thursday September 4

Historian Mark S. Weiner explores the meaning of community service and the surprising connection between a mountain rescue organization near Seattle and another in Austria, hoping to offer a unifying civic message in a time of conflict and strife.
