

Women of WWII: More Untold Stories

Meet the women who were the "secret weapon" that won the war and changed the world in the process. August 12 at 6pm. See page 7.

A MESSAGE FROM TOM LAYSON

Managing Editor & Producer-Host of Northwest Now

After forty-two years in this business, fourteen of which were happily spent at KBTC, I'm retiring.

I want to personally thank viewers of Northwest Now for tuning in to the program. I did what I did for you, and I hope you got value out of it.

I also want to sincerely thank the more than 1,600 guests who appeared on the 435 programs I did starting in the spring of 2012. I believe that in some small way, the local body politic, our broad community's discourse and this democracy were all the better for your appearance and participation. I hope you felt heard.

I also want to thank the staff and leadership at KBTC and Bates Technical College who trusted me to serve our viewers.

My final request is that you continue to support KBTC Public Television.

Like I say at the end of every program, I hope Northwest Now got you thinking and talking. Thank you all so very much, and farewell.

Watch Northwest Now's award-winning Saving the Salmon series this month, Fridays at 7:30pm

A Binding Truth | 11pm Tuesday, August 18

Two classmates from 1965—Jimmie, a Black football star, and De, a white student who respected him from afar—reunite 50 years later after a discovery linking their families changes their lives forever. This profoundly American story reveals the legacy of slavery, the complexities of race and privilege, and the power of truth in their journey toward healing.

JFK: American Experience, Parts 1 & 2 | 6 & 8pm
Thursday August 27

Follow JFK's rise to power from his birth to his election as president in 1960 - the youngest man ever to be elected to the office. With illuminating interviews from family members, including sister Jean Kennedy Smith, niece Kathleen Kennedy Townsend, and historian Robert Dallek, this documentary offers a unique insight into Kennedy's early years.
