The Ship That Turned Back | 11:30pm Thursday, April 9

A love letter to her late husband and filmmaking partner of 40 years, Allie Light recounts the dramatic escape of her late husband, Irving Saraf, from Poland to Palestine in 1940, when he was just 7 years old. Two perspectives of the same story are blended, that of the adult Irving and the child Ignacy (Irving's Polish birth name).

Henry David Thoreau | 8pm Thursday, April 23

A close look at the life and work of the 19th-century writer in the context of antebellum New England and the larger United States, as well as through the universal themes he focused on in his writings: an individual's relationship to the state, how to live an authentic life, our connection to nature, and the impact of race on American life.
