

Name: _____

Date: _____

Freedom Notes

Watch the clip about the Battle of Charlotte and fill out these notes along the way!

- 1 As General Cornwallis and his troops travel further into the backcountry, what is he actually interested in?

- 2 What had the people of Charlotte been doing that made the British angry?

- 3 On what date did British troops march up South Tryon Street in Charlotte?

- 4 Who said, "Legion remeber, you have everything to lose, and nothing to gain" ?

- 5 Who won the Battle of Charlotte? The Patriots or the British?

- 6 How long did General Cornwallis stay in Charlotte in 1780?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Freedom Notes

Watch the clip about the MecDec and fill out these notes along the way!

7 What did General Cornwallis call Charlotte?

8 The patriots borrowed fighting tactics from what Native American tribe?

Freedom Notes Answer Key

- 1 As General Cornwallis and his troops travel further into the backcountry, what is he actually interested in??

Farms, food, crops, stores, animals

- 2 What had the people of Charlotte been doing that made the British angry?

Tarring and feathering tax collectors, firing upon British officials, refusing to pay their taxes

- 3 On what date did British troops march up South Tryon Street in Charlotte?

September 26, 1780

- 4 Who said, “Legion remember, you have everything to lose, and nothing to gain’ ?

General Cornwallis

- 5 Who won the Battle of Charlotte? The Patriots or the British?

The British

- 6 How long did Gneral Cornwallis stay in Charlotte?

2 weeks

Freedom Notes Answer Key

7 What did General Cornwallis call Charlotte and why?

He called it a “Hornet’s Nest” because of the patriots’ fierce and stubborn resistance

8 The patriots borrowed fighting tactics from what Native American tribe?

The Catawba

State Standards

4.H.1 Understand the role of various people, events, and ideas in shaping North Carolina.

Objective

4.H.1.3 Explain the ways in which revolution, reform, and resistance have shaped North Carolina. 4.H.1.4 Summarize the role North Carolina has played in major conflicts and events throughout the history of America.