Dear Friends,

From inspiring celebrations to exceptional programming, PBS Charlotte is bringing you stories that inform, entertain, and connect our community all summer long.

For more than 40 years, A Capitol Fourth has helped Americans celebrate Independence Day with an unforgettable evening of music, patriotism, and star-studded performances. Featuring legendary artists such as Frankie Valli, Patti LaBelle, John Williams, Stevie Wonder, Aretha Franklin, Reba McEntire, Carole King, Neil Diamond, Dolly Parton, Kenny Rogers, and the Muppets from Sesame Street, this beloved tradition continues with A Capitol Fourth: 250th Weekend Celebration, airing Friday, July 3rd at 8 PM.

Continuing the celebration, America Made in Virginia: 250 Years Together commemorates the nation's Semiquincentennial with a live, star-filled tribute from Colonial Williamsburg's Historic Area. Blending music, historical storytelling, live performances, and spectacular visual displays, this inspiring special is designed to connect America's founding to the present day while celebrating the shared experiences that unite us. America Made in Virginia: 250 Years Together premieres live on Saturday, July 4 at 8 PM.

Later this month, we journey back to one of the most remarkable chapters in American history—the Space Race. 8 Days to the Moon and Back combines original Apollo 11 mission audio, featuring conversations among Neil Armstrong, Buzz Aldrin, and Michael Collins, with NASA archives, new footage, and stunning CGI to recreate humanity's first lunar landing. Then, Once Upon a Time in Space explores our enduring fascination with the cosmos through rare archival footage and insights from astronauts, scientists, and visionaries. 8 Days to the Moon and Back airs Wednesday, July 8 at 8 PM, and Once Upon a Time in Space airs Tuesday, July 14 at 9 PM.
