Dear Friends,

August is turning up the volume on PBS Charlotte!

This month, we're bringing you unforgettable performances, legendary stories, and inspiring programming that celebrates the power of music and discovery. Whether you're a fan of classic pop, country icons, or the stories behind the songs, our August lineup has something special waiting for you.

Travel back to a decade that transformed the Carolinas. Join PBS Charlotte for the premiere of Echoes of the '70s: Soul, Struggle and Southern Identity on Saturday, August 8 at 7 PM. This is the newest installment in our award-winning local Living History series. It explores the events, people, and defining moments that reshaped the Charlotte region—from the rise of banking and the birth of Bojangles to school integration, women's equality, Vietnam veterans, the growth of Charlotte Douglas Airport, the music that defined a generation, and the neighborhoods that became today's thriving communities. Through rare archival footage and powerful firsthand stories, discover how the 1970s forever changed the place we call home.

Explore the creativity behind The Beatles' most influential albums as acclaimed "Beatle-ologist" Scott Freiman guides you on an educational journey through several of The Beatles' milestone albums and the fascinating stories that accompanied them. No matter how much you know about the Beatles, there's something new here for you. Deconstructing The Beatles airs Monday, August 10th at 8 PM.

Beyond the stage, PBS Charlotte takes you on a journey of discovery with Resolve to Solve with Miles O'Brien, an inspiring exploration of solutions to today's climate challenges. Resolve to Solve with Miles O'Brien airs Thursday, August 20th at 10 PM.

Thank you for being part of the PBS Charlotte family—we can't wait to share what's ahead!
