PBS CHARLOTTE  Passport

Dear Friends,

April is blooming at PBS Charlotte with a spectacular lineup of royal insights and can't-miss programs.

At the outbreak of World War II, the British monarchy was in turmoil. Edward VIII had abdicated, leaving his brother George to take on a role he never expected: king. Edward vs George: The Windsors at War is the epic saga of two royal brothers at odds with each other, uncovering a bitter family feud fueled by ambition, health and their wives. Edward vs George: The Windsors at War airs Wednesday, April 1st at 9 PM.

Lucy Worsley investigates one of history's most explosive break-ups: the 18th century split between Britain and its 13 North American colonies. With access to expert insights and original evidence, Lucy explores the motivations behind the Americans' will for independence and asks whether this explosive break-up could have been avoided? Lucy Worsley Investigates: The American Revolution premieres Wednesday, April 8th at 9 PM.

Set in the remote wilds of northern Kenya, follow the remarkable journey of orphaned elephants at Reteti, the first community-owned elephant sanctuary in Africa. Raised by Samburu keepers who act as surrogate parents, these elephants, many rescued from poaching, drought, or human-wildlife conflict, are nurtured back to health and prepared for life in the wild. Nature | Becoming Elephant: The Orphans of Reteti premieres Thursday, April 9th at 8 PM.

Historian Kate Williams explores more stories about the residences of the British monarchy. Guiding the viewer through are specialist historians, royal commentators and ex-royal staff members who share the behind-the-scenes palace stories that have shaped the modern royal family. Secrets of the Royal Palaces airs Wednesday, April 22nd at 8 PM.
