Sat. 2/28			Best of PBS Charlotte

Dear Friends,

For Valentine's Day, PBS Charlotte is sharing the love of learning, all month long.

In Finding Your Roots: Love & Basketball, Henry Louis Gates, Jr. explores the roots of basketball superstars Brittney Griner and Chris Paul—revealing that they are not the first extraordinary people in their family trees. Telling stories that stretch deep into the past, Gates introduces his guests to relatives who showed courage, talent and grit—connecting Brittney and Chris to their ancestors in ways that they never imagined possible. Finding Your Roots: Love & Basketball airs Tuesday, February 3rd at 9 PM.

Black and Jewish America: An Interwoven History takes viewers on an epic journey of the parallel and intersecting streams of Black and Jewish experience in the U.S. The four-part series, hosted by Henry Louis Gates, Jr., chronicles the complex relationship of the Black and Jewish communities; both uniquely close and uniquely fraught.

Black and Jewish America: An Interwoven History premieres Wednesday, February 4th at 9 PM.

Filmed over 3 years, on 6 continents, and in 23 countries, this five-part series, narrated by Sir David Attenborough, tells the stories of astonishing animal behaviors shaped by the environments they inhabit. Each habitat has its own unique challenges, but as the world changes rapidly around them, some parents have to adapt to a world shaped by humans. The stakes couldn't be higher: success for all parents ensures the future of life on our planet. Nature's Parenthood series premieres Thursday, February 5th at 8 PM.

Great Performances: Movies for Grownups Awards with AARP The Magazine honors the best films and performances of 2024 that resonate with older viewers in a star-studded celebration hosted by Alan Cumming.

Great Performances: Movies for Grownups Awards airs Sunday, February 22nd at 7 PM.
