Dear Friends,

PBS Charlotte delivers this March with a fan favorite, and two new series for you.

Barbara Streisand Timeless: Live In Concert shows a magical concert filmed on New Year's Eve in 1999 at the MGM Grand Hotel in Las Vegas. Staged as an original, Broadway-style musical in which Barbra looks back at her past, the production featured an orchestra conducted by Marvin Hamlisch Barbara Streisand Timeless: Live In Concert airs Tuesday, March 3rd at 8 PM.

Mister Rogers: It's You I Like is a new documentary pays tribute to the beloved Fred Rogers and the nearly 900 episodes of his landmark children's television program first seen in 1968 on PBS that continues to resonate with children and adults alike. Mister Rogers: It's You I Like airs Thursday, March 12th at 8 PM.

The new season of Call The Midwife kicks off in 1971 as several of the ladies embrace Women's Lib and burn their bras outside Nonnatus House. Over the year, the team handles challenging cases including premature birth, placenta previa, kidney cancer, tuberculosis, and slavery. Season Fifteen of Call The Midwife airs Sunday, March 22nd at 8 PM.

Desire, ambition, and betrayal simmer at the heart of The Forsytes, a wealthy family whose generations are torn between tradition and duty against happiness and the pursuit of love in this epic Victorian-era drama. The Forsytes premieres Sunday, March 22nd at 9 PM.

On the eve of his wedding, Edmond Dantès is falsely accused of treason and imprisoned. After escaping and discovering a hidden treasure, he reinvents himself as the Count of Monte Cristo in this captivating tale of revenge, betrayal, and redemption. The Count of Monte Cristo premieres Sunday, March 22nd at 10 PM.
